

Mayor's Youth Advisory Council

The City of Prescott in partnership with Youth Count desires to encourage youth participation in city activities and decision making. The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council will provide a voice for youth on city issues and will work with the Mayor, the Prescott City Council and staff to learn about local government operations and services and assist with city activities to encourage youth involvement in the community.

The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council (MYAC) will be composed of at least six and not more than 16 youth, ages 13 to 18 who live in Prescott or adjacent unincorporated areas. The MYAC will strive to reflect the demographic diversity of the community. Members will be appointed by the mayor and serve one-year terms beginning September 1 and continuing through August of each school year. Members of the MYAC must attend two monthly meetings at Prescott City Hall and are responsible for transportation to and from the meeting location. Transportation for field trips, site visits and other activities of the MYAC will be provided for MYAC members to and from City Hall.

Applications for the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council are available at the Grace Sparkes Activity Center (824 E. Gurley) or City Hall (201 S. Cortez)

City staff, under the direction of the Prescott City Council will work with the MYAC, preparing agendas, arranging field trips, tours and other activities and will arrange for the mayor or another City Council member to meet with members on a regular basis.

Direct questions about the MYAC to the 777-1557. Send e-mail to rick.hormann@prescott-az.gov .
