D. Discussion and tour of the Teen Task Force and Grace Sparkes Activity Center

A brief recap of the Teen Task Force was given. Rick Hormann and Sam Rice provided that. Rick discussed an idea to host a carnival in order to attract other teens to be a part of the task force. This group would organize projects and then the larger group of teens would help carry those out. An indoor carnival could be hosted for the adults with special needs. There are about 150 adult special need participants who come to activities regularly. End of April may be a good target time. Recruit teens to come and be a part of this. There is a special needs budget to buy supplies for the carnival. Teens would come to enjoy the games, help those with special needs, and sign up to participate in the future.

A brief tour of the building was given to show different areas to potentially host the event.

The group liked the idea and agreed to move forward with planning and assisting that event. Event would be last weekend in April. Do a meeting in February and March to plan. Meet at the next Youth Advisory Board meeting. Think about ideas how to spread the word. Tessa and Sierra will work on the flier and have a draft by the next meeting. Think of ideas to include in the carnival (games, prizes, etc.). Figure out what night in April will work with prom and other conflicts. Sam to send powerpoint to Tyler to share with the Board so they can share it with schools, teens, and others.

E. Adjournment
