F. Discuss Teen Task Force

Amber Fraser presented on the Teen Task Force. They asked for assistance, guidance, and leadership on this taskforce as well as presented ideas for consideration. There are a lot of elements that the Board could assist with. The Board will discuss this further in future meetings.

G. Discuss Goals of the Board

Nicholas Reyes – bridging the age gap between the youth and the elderly.

Emma Tenney – the youth tend to be overlooked, so help them with things to do and create a support system for those feeling that way.

Nick Vakula – the youth need a voice in the community.

Tessa Dunn – I agree with all that has been said. Bridge the age gap – interacting with senior citizens and get the youth involved in the community. Does anyone have ideas of what we can do to fulfill those goals?

Samuel Mackin – helping businesses come to Prescott to bring in youth. Teen related businesses or activities to Prescott.

Nicholas Reyes – the Teen Task Force will help us broaden that idea. There are mentors, who could be elderly, to help mentor the youth.

Camille Mangum – help bridge schools. Get all the youth involved, not just from certain schools or groups.

Hollie Dalton – we could do an event that's not only focused on one age group, but could bring elders and youth together.

Samuel Mackin – we could talk with student councils from the different schools.

Nicholas Reyes – we could present the Teen Task Force idea to all the councils.

Councilwoman Scholl – maybe create a mailing list or newsletter to spread word on events or volunteer opportunity.

There was interest in hearing from the department heads. Jim Robb should come present with John Heiney at the next meeting.

Tyler will send list of departments to the Board.

Tessa Dunn – are there other ideas on how to spread information?

Schools are a good way to spread the information through email.

The Board is to spread the word about Teen Task Force and start to brainstorm on ideas.

Direction to Sam and Amber – get the Board connected with the movie night events so they can help volunteer. Sam will send next date to Tyler to share with board.

H. Adjournment

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting was adjourned at 4:55pm

Respectfully Submitted by:

Tyler Goodman, Assistant to the City Manager
